A man without a future, a woman determined to give him one...

Jami Baylor has lost her job, her fiancé, her hopes, and her dreams all on the same day. But she believes in fate and destiny, and after finding Colton Amory's CD in a thrift store grab bag, Jami knows it's serendipity that she's heard his song now. "Baby I'll Find You" speaks to her heart, right when she needs it most. So, off she goes to the wilds of Yosemite to discover why Colton Amory hasn't written another song in seven years.

The only problem? The man who wrote such beautiful music turns out to be a self-pitying jerk. Or so it seems, until Jami digs deeper.

Seven years ago, Cole Amory had a flourishing musical career and a little girl who was his pride and joy. In one split second, he lost it all. He hasn't written a lyric or played a note since. Buried in a small Yosemite town, he's now a fry cook at a fast-food joint. And he doesn't need a woman with stars in her eyes opening all his old wounds and guilt.
