Morning Comes Softly By Debbie Macomber

A shy Louisiana librarian, Mary Warner fears she'll always be alone, so she answers a personal ad from a rancher in Montana. Marrying a man she's never met is reckless, but something about him calls to her.

Tragedy made Travis Thompson the guardian of three orphaned children. Determined to keep the kids out of foster care, he places the ad, and is surprised to marry a mysterious southern woman sight unseen.

It could be the mistake of a lifetime, but Mary might be what this broken family needs. With a little faith, a little trust, and a lot of love, two lonely hearts might just discover the true meaning of miracles.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Debbie Macomber has more than 100 million copies of her books in print, and her stories about home and family have a worldwide audience and have been translated into twenty-three languages. In addition to being a #1 New York Times bestseller in fiction many times over, she also has an enormous following among knitters as the author of dozens of pattern and craft books. In 2008, she launched a branded line of knitting products through Leisure Arts, the company that publishes her knitting guides. Debbie and her husband, Wayne, have four children and nine grandchildren, and split their time between Washington State and Florida. This is Debbie's second picture book co-authored with Mary Lou Carney; their first, The Truly Terribly Horrible Sweaer . . . That Grandma Knit, was published in 2009.
