Review

Dr. Paul Williams is uniquely qualified to write a book on disaster preparedness. He has organized and led medical teams, including teams from our own In His Image International, in a number of major world disasters since the early 1990s. From the refugee camps created by the Rwandan Civil War to hurricane-ravaged Central America to tsunami devastation and earthquakes around the world, he has been there. --John R. Crouch Jr., M.D, President, In His Image International.

I have known Paul Williams for over 40 years. He is a man with a heart for missions and people. It has been impressive to observe his vision as a medical missionary. His experience in over 100 nations and with disaster relief work makes him well qualified to speak on the very important and relevant subject of disaster preparedness. --Admiral Vernon E. Clark, USN (Ret.), Chief of Naval Operations

I have known and worked with Dr. Paul Williams for over 18 years in medical missions. He has a deep compassion for the poor and hurting peoples of the world and a heart for them to receive care for the whole person, meeting their medical, physical, and spiritual needs. He has been a pioneer in the development of global medical missions, including disaster relief missions. Providing relief in disasters such as the typhoon in Bangladesh, the tsunami in Banda Aceh, Indonesia, the earthquake in Kashmir, and the refugee camps of Rwanda has given him a wealth of experience from which he can share with us (the reader) about disaster preparedness. --Chris Feucht, M.D. Director of Missions, New Life Ministries Int --Chris Feucht, M.D. Director of Missions, New Life Ministries Int l
