Rough Justice By Sam Hastings

Detective Constable Susan MacQuillan achieves promotion to her dream post - Inspector in the Carapine Islands. On arrival, reality proves very far from what she had imagined. The locals treat her with a friendly contempt that quickly leads to a bare bottomed spanking over the local matriarch's knee.

Nor do the local criminals - a drug cartel - treat her with any more respect, viewing her body as a toy and her determination to bring them to justice as a joke. Only when she destroys one of their boats do they begin to take her seriously, and things take on a much darker complexion...
