Troubleshooting Histology Stains, 1e By Richard W. Horobin, John D. Bancroft

This book aims to solve the problems encountered by the laboratory worker when a particular histological staining process either goes wrong or generates a problematic result. The most common procedures are described in detail, and background information on the dyes and techniques is supplied. Variants are then discussed and, in the third section, the ease of use of the method, and the pitfalls are assessed and described. Well illustrated in color.
