Editorial Review

From the Publisher

Donna Wright has presented this material in hundreds of workshops and on-site consultations. The second edition reflects the collective experience of competency assessment from professionals around the United States. It is still the most comprehensive text addressing the JCAHO standard on competency assessment.

From Chapter 1: Competency assessment is a fluid, ongoing process. It reflects the skills and abilities needed to carry out any job. Competency assessment helps articulate and evaluate the skills needs to carry out the job now, as well as in the future as the job evolves over time. For competency assessment to truly be meaningful, it should reflect the dynamic nature of the job.
