Feels Like Family (The Sweet Magnolias Book 3) By Sherryl Woods

Life can be full of surprises...

Helen Decatur spent a lifetime setting goals—getting through college and law school, opening her own practice, becoming financially secure and establishing herself as one of the most highly respected matrimonial attorneys in the state of South Carolina. Achieving those goals was a breeze compared to the one she's faced with now.

The most driven—and cynical—of the Sweet Magnolias, Helen is forty-two, single and suddenly ready for the family she's put on the back burner for all these years. Unfortunately, having a child at her age comes with lots of complications, not the least of which is the absence of a serious relationship in her life.

But Helen's not the type of woman to wait around for fate to step in. Taking charge of her own destiny puts her at odds with her two best friends, sets sparks flying with a man who doesn't want a family, and leads her straight into the most unexpected complication of all...love.

Editorial Review

From Booklist

At 42, Helen Decatur's biological clock is ticking, but her legal work as the champion of abandoned spouses, along with her own unhappy childhood, has made her uninterested in marriage. When sexy bachelor Eric Whitney kisses her and sparks fly, she decides he may be the answer to her dilemma, but business concerns linked to the earlier Sweet Magnolias (Stealing Home, 2007, and Slice of Heaven, 2007) and threats by the angry ex-husband of a client combine to keep her life chaotic. Purists may balk at various contrived situations, but Woods' fans will eagerly check out the wrap-up to her contemporary southern romance trilogy. Lynne Welch
